

MAJOR UPDATE: Loypoll made a “response” (really only covers the second half of chapter 1) video, which will be covered later in the doc, I highly recommend you watch it, as it goes into more detail about the non-archive eras. It’s not a direct response to this document, just as a response to what happened in general.

Video:

MAJOR UPDATE 2: Loypoll made a response doc, however, it’s for an older version of this document that was never published, so not everything from this document was covered. Resort to the bottom for my response.

UNDERTALE LOST CONTENT ARCHIVE

My Experience

Hello, my name is Seerified, and I’m here to tell you about my experience working for Loypoll. But, before that, I have to give you some context:

Loypoll/Tszeru/harlequin/gilligan, is the person who created the UNDERTALE Lost Content Archive youtube channel (he's also the creator of of that one Pizza Tower mod, Cheesed Up)

Here's the background for everything leading up to the creation of the channel, which goes into the detail about the problematic nature of Loypoll, who has shown to not have changed, even after 4 years of this stupid drama happening.

CHAPTER 1 (2020-2021)

Mutual Friends.

It all started when I was in this server's VC, I was in the middle of making a shitty MEGALOVANIA remix, when someone named "Liam7000" joined. He guided me through alot of stuff and gave me a cool ass preset. We talked for a few hours, and the next day, I was added to a GC with someone named Skelekid. Skelekid would be the one that would introduce me to Loypoll's friend group at the time, which would consist of: Postman, Dankman, Denchick, and Loypoll. Denchick and Loypoll are the most notable of the bunch. The whole reason I even met these guys in the first place is because Skelekid asked me if I wanted to work on a fanmade DELTARUNE Chapter 3 leak, which died quicker than it started, due to Loypoll ditching it for Mr. Luwigi's version. There were little to no assets made for the project, but Postman created this character called "The Director" that would be the chapter's main antagonist. Keep this in mind for later in the doc.

During one of our development sessions, I had the sudden urge to do some research on Loypoll, and found a now deleted video and document explaining everything he had done wrong up until that point. I barely remember the premise, but Denchick was also involved, and they had used a Token Logger on a person named Sertif, one of the two Developers of Pizza Tower, to leak major developer stuff. Another topic the video covered was the constant leaking of patreon builds Loypoll would do, which got him into massive trouble.

An excerpt from this pdf file states that "Later on, Loypoll makes a Youtube channel with the username, "aptrlv," which uploaded then-unknown music from the Patreon. The videos get copyright striked by Sauceman, the game's composer, and Loypoll decided to lie that Denchick was the channel's creator, ultimately fucking him over." This shows that Loypoll is willing to backstab people he calls "friends" in an attempt to save his ass, which is an extremely selfish thing to do. Another excerpt, relating to the token stealing of Sertif, states that "Loypoll starts having a mental breakdown, one of his schizo ramblings were about the Pizza Tower source code, and how he wanted to hack PTG. Him and Denchick hatch a plan to make a fake Pizza Tower mod, that was actually Byte Tools Token Grabber Version 3.0 in disguise. They send it to PTG, but he just ended up ignoring them. They sent it to the game's second dev, Sertif, and he responded. His computer flagged it as an anti-virus, but he still had run the game, thus giving our two morons his token..... Loypoll holds Denchick at gunpoint and tells him not to tell ANYONE he's involved in this, so essentially, he wanted Denchick to die alone. Anyways, someone in the PT discord chat was talking about gay people or trans people (Denchick says "most likely trans"), which made him quite angry. In a blind moment of rage he typed the letter "N" and hit send, coincidentally Sertif was looking at chat and he changed his password. Obviously, Loypoll still hid his ass, and everyone's eyes instantly drew to Denchick as they harassed him to hell and back. Denchick spread the word about Loypoll in people's private DMs, thus getting Loypoll banned. "

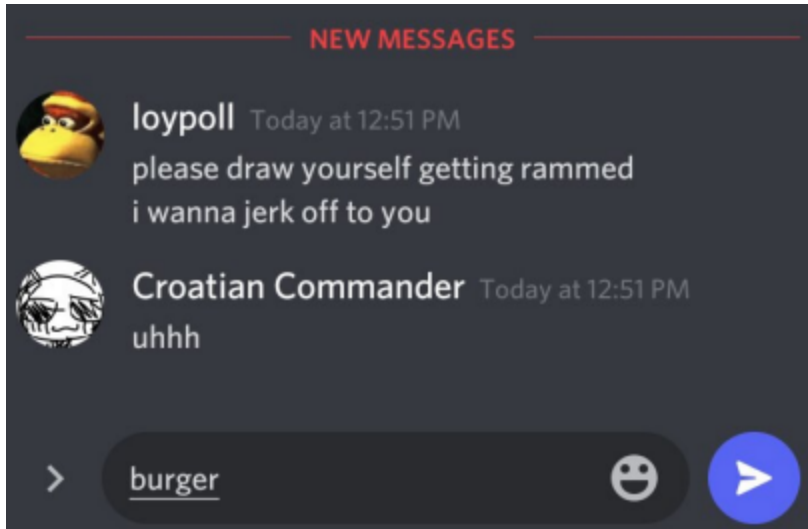

After I found all this out, I...stayed silent. I...at the time, apparently gave zero shits. I thought at the back of my head "Well, maybe they learned their lesson now" And with Denchick, yeah, I agree, but I wish I can say the same for Loypoll.

The Era of Degeneracy.

WARNING! This is the area of the document where things start to get weird, and sexually explicit content will be mentioned, HOWEVER, I still advise you read this part as it provides essential evidence in favor of Loypoll's carelessness.

Later down the line, in this convoluted ass story, Loypoll met someone by the name of "Spectral_Peic" during his "Pizza Tower Online" craze, which we will get into later. A quote from the previously mentioned pdf document states that "During this time, he met Peic, and soon enough he started simping for her. He added her furry OC, Glade, into PTO, which made Peic somewhat happy. At this time, Loypoll also started acting oddly nice to Peic, and this oddity slowly became more obvious over time." You will start to see a pattern in this section of the document, where Loypoll decides he randomly wants to attach himself to someone, and start simping for them. While all this was happening, he met someone named "Captions", who originally tried to help Loypoll get with Peic. Loypoll ended up developing a sexual relationship with Captions, which he then stated that if he wasn't dating Peic, he'd date him instead. Which is pretty fucked up. One of these instances, contains possibly the funniest screenshot of a discord DM I've ever seen in my entire life.

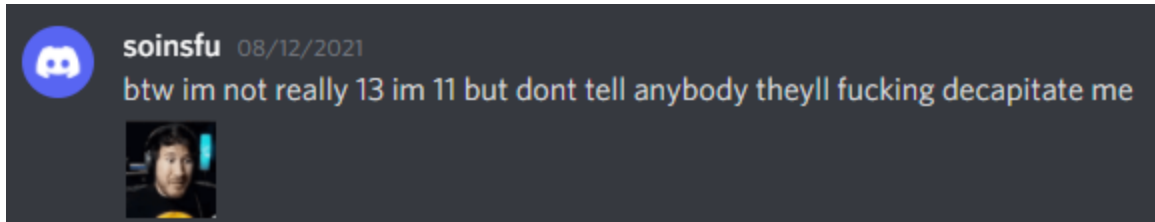

You can read it for yourself, it's fucking comedic gold, and it's a perfect example of how Loypoll acted with these guys. Anyway, Loypoll stated the reason he was losing interest in Peic was because she kept sending him Friday Night Funkin; Gameplay, which he did not like.

This next screenshot, I don't really have the words for, so just read it yourself.

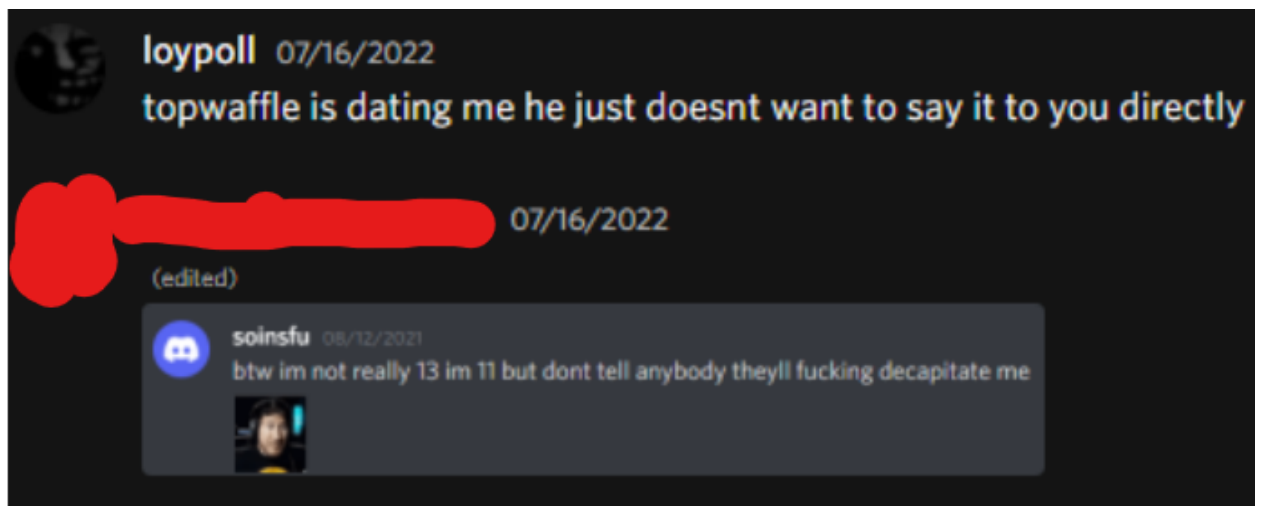

Shortly after this, Loypoll met someone by the name of "Topwaffle". Topwaffle was basically the exact same case as Captions, except they actually went through with dating. This next case is where Loypoll's carelessness really starts to show. At this time, Loypoll was under the impression that Topwaffle was 13, and there would be no reason to doubt that, if it weren't for the fact that Topwaffle actually admitted to Lying about his age in a group DM,

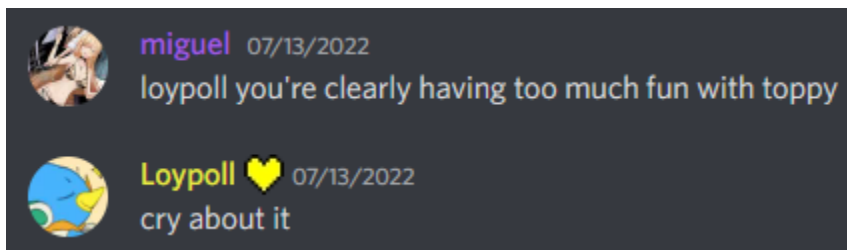

While this was happening, People were constantly trying to call out the fact that Topwaffle was 11, but Loypoll refused to listen, and presumably refused to talk to Top about it.

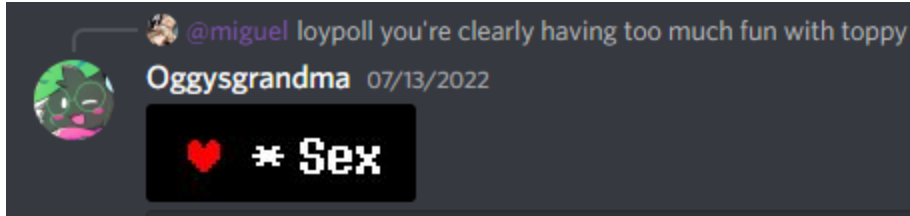

Screenshot of Loypoll admitting to dating him:

It would take a lot of force for the two to break-up, but eventually, they did. But whilst all this was happening, it would be implied Loypoll and topwaffle were very sexual with each other.

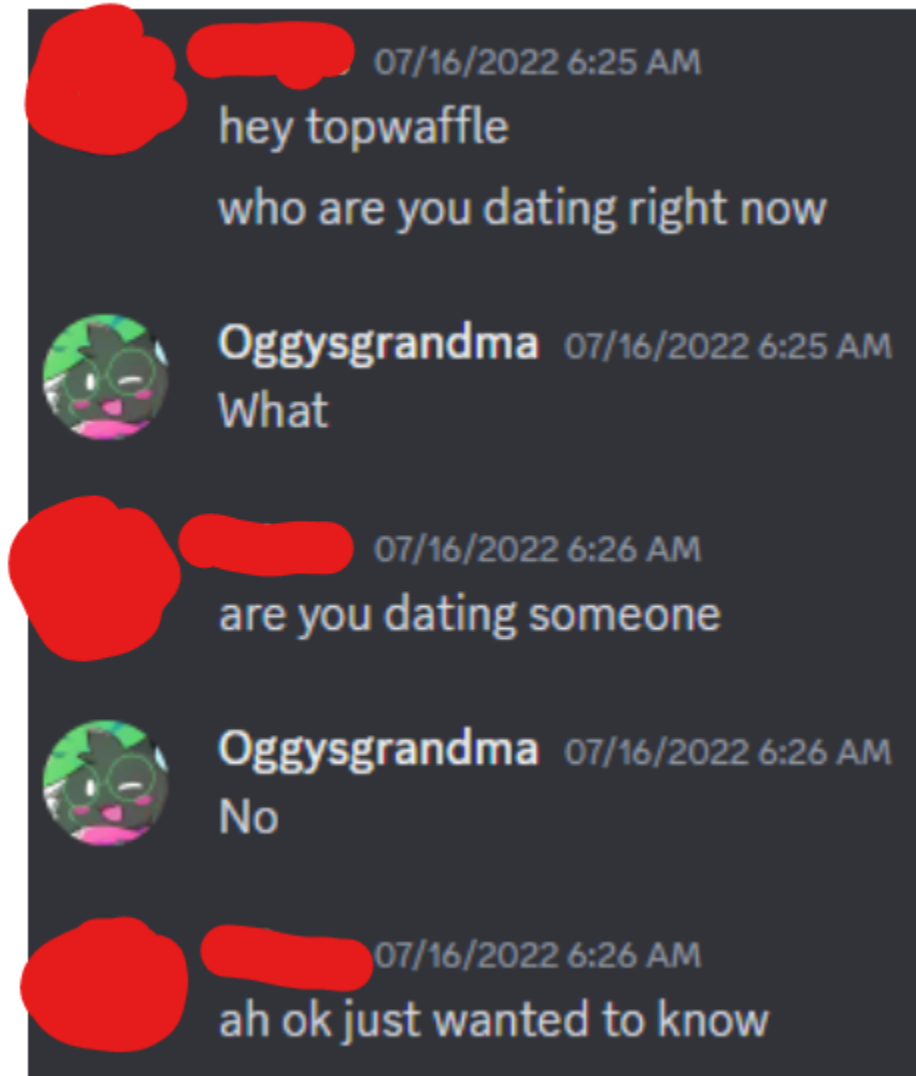

Examples:

Oggysgrandma, is Topwaffle.

Proof:

As you notice right here, Top is denying dating Loypoll, which correlates to what Loypoll said above, saying how Top doesn't want to admit to anything directly to him.

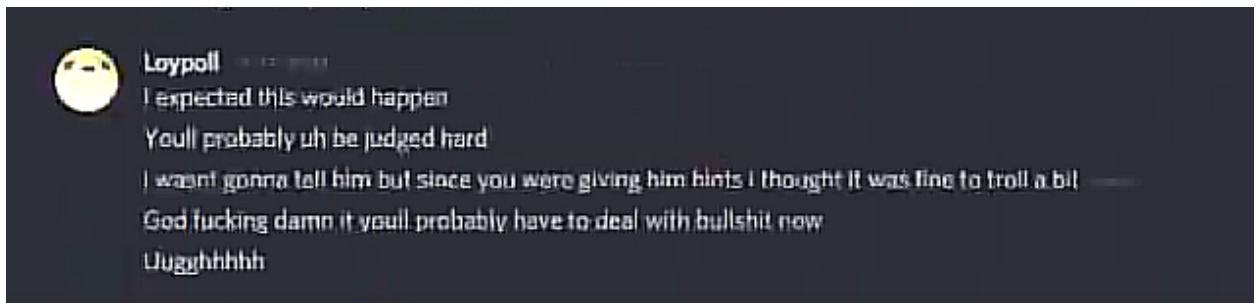

This one is a bit of a sad case, and that before Topwaffle, Loypoll dated somebody named "Lee". Which Captions had actually feared of and vented about, in fear of what Loypoll would do to her. which Loypoll saw, and took advantage of, by taking his shot at Lee. By some miracle, they started dating. When Captions heard of this, he had a massive breakdown. This is also probably the worst one out of all of these, combined. Loypoll received multiple explicit files from Lee, including an audio of her masturbating, which came from an e-sex session she and Loypoll had. She was 15 at the time, and so was Loypoll. Loypoll has probably saved all of these, given his track record, and Loypoll probably has other sexually explicit files from Lee that none of us know about. Lee's online activity was basically erased, and there is no current way to go find her, so I suggest just leaving it, because if all evidence of her on socials are gone, she probably doesn't wanna talk about it. What's especially sad is the treatment that Lee dealt with, she was basically bullied by the Retard Bros (Loypoll's ex-friend group), which is really nothing at first, but when you add everything all up together, it really starts to hurt.

One of the reasons Lee deleted their socials is probably because of the rumor that Loypoll manipulated Lee into dating him, which is false, as she was just tired of the drama and shut it off. You could say Lee was not a victim of manipulation, but rather a victim of having to meet Loypoll.

Lee confirmed this through a now deleted Loypoll video, which you can find here. At the end of the video, he shows EVERY single DM they have had, but at a rapid pace, and low quality. It's very hard to decipher

UPDATE: In the video, it states that Loypoll genuinely liked Lee, but he should have considered his "friends" wishes, because going through with the relationship caused Captions so much distress, like, imagine how you would feel if you put yourself in Captions shoes...not good, huh?

SORRY FOR THE SHIT QUALITY, the person who rendered it decided they wanted to export in 720p + 2 layers of youtube compression.

This screenshot's context is Captions finding out about Loypoll dating Lee, and since she was “dropping hints” he thought it would be okay to troll. WHICH NO, it’s not. That’s someones genuine mental state you’re playing with and if you find that funny while they’re in extreme distress, threatening SUICIDE, then you’re a fucked up individual.

AGAIN, sorry for the low quality.

In case anyone can't read through the 19 fucking million layers of compression, here's what he's saying:

“I am actually fucking done with BOTH of you

I GENUINELY FUCKING HATE MY LIFE

OF COURSE YOU HAD TO DATE THE GUY WHO FUCKING SHITS ON ME ALL THE TIME

I'VE BEEN SHAKING VIOLENTLY FOR THE PAST

HOUR

HOPE YOU'RE FUCKING HAPPY WITH YOURSELF

GOD FUCK ”

You can already tell Loypoll has done so much to terrorize Captions, and I think he just let loose here. This is where they decided to keep the fact they were even dating in the first place a secret, which didn't last long as the Retard Brothers found out.

CHAPTER 3 (2022)

UNDERTALE LOST CONTENT ARCHIVE

Note that, I, Seerified. Even though I can't prove any of this, as it's in a now deleted GC, I'm not lying,

Two years later, we are finally at the modern day. One morning, I was at school, at I get added to this GC with Loypoll and Denchick, mind you I haven't gotten involved with any of their drama, because I was under the impression Loypoll had changed, because he was acting cool. He had an idea for us, and that it would be “pizza tower online except undertale”. Which I liked, until we realized we had to pay a shit ton for servers. Denchick proposed another idea, he said we could mimic those old preservation accounts, and add a sense to comedy to it, since I was a musician, I was tasked with making concept music that Loypoll would later make in his own style because “his composition sucked”. This is where the interesting part happens, the channel actually blows up, we get hundreds of subscribers a week, and the channel hits a few thousand subscribers in no time. However, my enjoyment on the team would take a steady decline.

Whenever we were talking about anything else and Loypoll wanted to send something, he would tell us to “sHUT the fuck up”, the biggest example I can remember of this was when I sent something by accident, after he sent something. He deleted the media he sent, while I was viewing it, and he refused to repost it, because of some idiotic reason. Loypoll and I grow to hate each other more and more, while my view of him declines. We would argue constantly, some being his fault, some being mine. There was a discussion about the morality of furry porn, since Loypoll kept making jokes on him wanting to fuck Ralsei. I called him a Zoophile for this, which he argued with me. I'm not gonna go into details here, but take that how you will. Another argument got so bad that it caused me to have a full on mental breakdown in Denchick's DMs. This caused me to have an idea, and that was to create the “Lost Archive: Archived” account, which would archive the archive. Of course, this pissed off Loypoll, which was my intention. I uploaded every video up to that point, in which he copystricked after he asked his fanbase what to do, the plan was to make fake videos that were “reuploads” in order to get people to hate the channel. Denchick was on board with this, and plans started, however they were never finished, and they instead uploaded it on the official channel.

Loypoll was also working on a video with all of us, featuring Director, from the old Chapter 3 leak that was never finished. If you remember, Postman was the creator of Director, so Loypoll was directly stealing Director here, which is just shitty on its own.

*Corrected spelling mistakes: "MF gets offended at slight criticism about his shitty arrangements. FUCKING HELLO? You were JUST talking in GC (about how those are shit) *death threat I no longer stand by, so I wont bother correcting it"*

The part about his classmates hating him comes from a time where he “vented” the fact he had no IRL friends, because his classmates hated him. I admit, this was a shitty thing to say, but there's a reason his classmates hated him, and that's because he's irritable, which he has shown countless times.

“Can’t deal with his past being brought up” comes from another argument that I forgot the details of, but it led to there. I got blocked while yelling in his DMs that he hasn’t changed and he needs to take accountability, which he still hasn’t. (more info later)

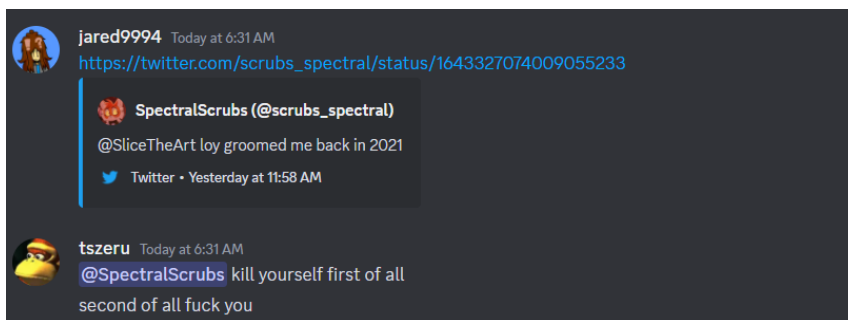

I don’t want to get into detail with every argument, but it’s just to give context to our relationship we had. Loypoll would constantly shit on anything I make (even concept work) without considering the fact I had been without my PC for a full year, meaning that I wasn’t able to produce as high quality of music. Despite this, I was shat on without being given proper feedback, and it really hurt me. I vented to Loypoll about this, begging for proper feedback on anything, but to no avail, nothing changed. I don’t know why, but I cried over this, which has never happened before. but Loypoll was just different I guess. He’s just caused so much stress for me I think it damaged me mentally. Whenever I look at Pizza Tower, I just see his reflection.

As I mentioned, Denchick was the one who proposed the idea for the Archive itself. He brought Loypoll on, only for him to take complete control over the channel, and steal it from Denchick. This made Denchick reasonably angry, and over time, he plotted with the Retard Bros to infiltrate the channel (since he was able to upload still) with a disturbing video. The video they uploaded was a video of Queen running over Raisei with a tank, with gore and everything. The comments were shocked, and Loypoll quickly added a trigger warning to the video upon discovering what Denchick did. Because of this, Loypoll removed Denchicks permission, and changed the password to HIS OWN EMAIL, so that Denchick wouldn’t try to upload from the main channel itself. The reason he was able to do this is because we had linked Loypolls phone number to the channel to enable monetization.

I'm getting tired of these subtitles

This is the part of the doc where it contains bits of information that didn't have a place to fit in any of the previous chapters, as it would be very convoluted. A little while ago, Loypoll, Jared, Peic, and a few others were added to a GC. where they all asked Loypoll a few questions. Jared, linked to a twitter post that showed Peic telling someone that Loypoll groomed them, to which Loypoll got very hostile, as shown below.

The screenshot below shows that Loypoll doesn't even know what the definition of grooming is, which he claims it couldn't be grooming because "the person agreed to it". Victims can still be victims, while also agreeing to what caused them to be victims. Groomers will take advantage of their victim, by getting close to them, making the victim feel comfortable enough with them to do these things.

This one really just speaks for itself. He "didn't care it was child porn", that should tell you enough.

CHAPTER 5 (2023)

THE NEWEST DRAMA

A little bit ago, Loypoll was under fire for having a character that resembles black face in a build of Pizza Tower Online. Twitter user Hood Piccolo called this out.

Link: <https://twitter.com/Gelzazz/status/1640887424610861057>

The entire thread basically just talks about multiple shitty things Loypoll has done, and how he doesn't deserve a platform.

Although this isn't recent, there's something that can be seen as transphobic on a now unlisted Loypoll video, the skin name is called "Transgender" and the caption is "Laugh", which can be seen as an attempt to make a mockery out of trans people.

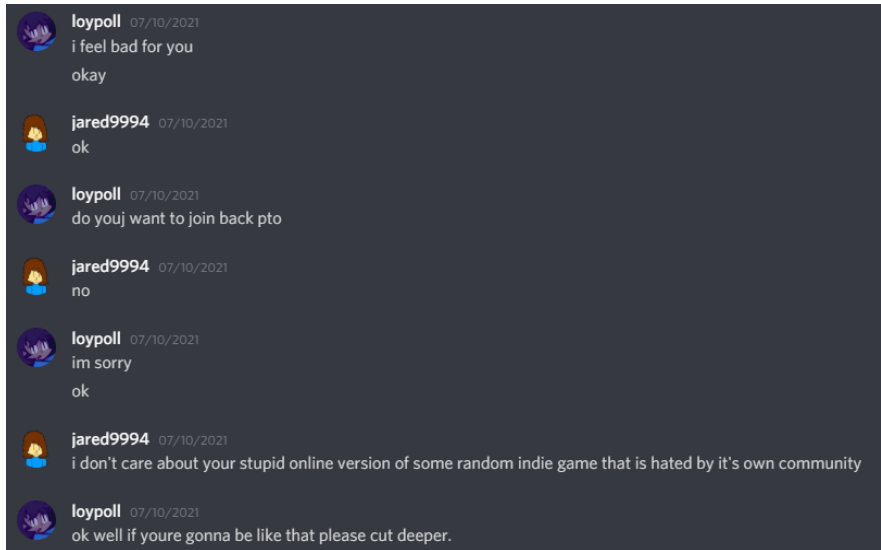

Even though the proof for this is gone, Loypoll would disrespect the pronouns of one of the ex-team members in the Undertale Lost Content Archive Dev Team, which is uncalled for, no matter how weird they may seem.

CHAPTER 6 (2021)

Manipulation

This is one of the more unknown parts of the story here. The victim of Loypoll in question here is actually a friend of mine, and he wanted me to show you a compilation of screenshots that he and Loypoll exchanged.

Here's an example of Loypoll telling someone who's clearly not in a healthy mental state to further cut themselves.

This image above is related to the previous one. It took place just before Jared sent the picture, and It shows how willing Loypoll is to joke about stuff like this. It makes him come across as an insensitive prick.

CHAPTER 7 (2023)

THE VIDEO RESPONSE

As of recently, Loypoll has uploaded yet another slideshow-style response video to the drama. This response is actually really bad, and only covers the second half of Chapter 2 of this document. The video wasn't a direct response to this document, but rather a response to what happened in general. I have no idea why Loypoll didn't cover the other stuff, such as the pedo allegations, since straight up not addressing it can make you look really bad.

Loypoll personally DMed me about some things earlier this week, heres some screenshots from that.

loypoll 03/30/2023 10:43 PM

i wanted to tell you that i forgot that denchick made the foundation of the isabelle folder full story for april 1st 2021 i was gonna pretend to be a full on furry this was when i hated furries the day before however denchick challenged me to jack off to isabele rule 34 we made a channel in my server and he started posting rule 34 he thought i would like

The Isabelle folder in question (NSFW) is a collection of pornography compiled into a single folder, the reason why he was bringing this up is because I was calling him a Zoophile for still having these images and getting off to them.

loypoll we made a channel in my server and he started posting rule 34 he thought i would like

loypoll 03/30/2023 10:46 PM

i had a porn addiction so i made a folder holding all of them

“I had a porn addiction” implies that he was actively getting off to these images, and since Isabelle is very obviously a dog, that makes him a Zoophile, at least in my opinion. One of these images literally has her saying “arf!” like a dog, and it’s paired with these other images, so it’s more than likely he got off to it.

My reasoning for calling him a Zoophile for getting off to furry porn is because furry porn depicts characters that have more traits of an animal than human. The only traits of a human it has are its proportions. People are attracted to the animal traits, because if they were only attracted to the humanoid traits, they would just be getting off to regular content. So if you get off to furry porn, you are attracted to the traits of an animal. Which makes you a Zoophile, which is the philia of being sexually attracted to animals.

Clarifications

1. The reason I named this document “My Experience With The UNDERTALE Lost Content Archive Team.” is so that Loypoll has no source audience to return to, as people who are aware of the channel will now be aware of his past actions.

2. According to Denchick, one of Loypoll’s friends of many years, stated that there is no token stealer in Pizza Tower Online, and that it was some made up rumor, or perhaps a scare tactic as he was very protective of the source code.

3. Cheesed Up is not canceled, according to Loypoll, so be on the lookout for that. Try to prevent him from getting any platform what-so-ever.

4. If i'm missing any information, please add me on discord, my tag is Seeri#0299. Im more than willing to accept your evidence as it means we are one step closer to getting rid of this fucker.

5. I'm also in need of help, if you spot Loypoll under a different alias, let me know right away, and I'll add it as list of names Loypoll goes by.

LIST OF NAMES LOYPOLL GOES BY

- Loypoll
- Tszeru

My Response to the Loypoll document, for the stuff that IS covered:

Loypoll has admitted himself in my DMs that the only reason he hates me so much is because back in 2021, when Denchick added me to the Fanmade Chapter 3 project, is because the "vibe" he got from me. This is a very stupid reason to hate somebody for months and years for. Loypoll then half asses an apology that basically means nothing. He brought mental stress to me, and thats all he has to say? Just a one liner? That's not really that meaningful.

My experiences with you are not just instances of mistreatment, it's also you just being a piece of shit in general. You would make out of pocket jokes. I sent an image of an Alpharad video thumbnail, which featured the unused Chara sprite from UNDERTALE, which just so happens to be the mascot of the archive channel. Next to the sprite, was a fan-made sprite, which was a human that just so happened to be black. I made a meme that had a red circle around the unused sprite, that had an arrow pointing to the archive channel. Loypoll, like the genius he is, says “the circle around the black guy would point to a picture of George Floyd”, or something like that. Again, I have no screenshots as this is on a deleted group-chat, but it really happened.

I admit, some of the shit I've done in the past was bad, such as the Archive Archived channel, and the plans to slander the channel as a means to destroy the reputation of it. I'm not gonna shift the blame onto Denchick, even though he was on board with it, because I was the one actively trying to make it happen. Even with as big of a bitch Loypoll is, I don't think slandering was the right move, as it could invalidate all currently proven true evidence due to association.

This next part is not relevant, I have no idea why it's included, but here we go anyway. As of February 28th, 2023, I finally got a new computer. My old computer broke sometime around January 2022, perhaps even December. That's almost 14 Months. Music is my passion, and on mobile, the quality of the music can decrease drastically, and I knew this very well. I was very self conscious about this fact, because everytime i tried to make something I just felt bad about myself, cause I felt like it sounded like shit, and that I wasn't a good musician. I had high hopes of getting a pc, I kept asking my dad over and over, and he would say a date in hopes of it actually happening. What I mean is, he would apply to finance the computer, which would be monthly payments instead of upfront payment. You need to have a decent enough credit score for this, which my dad barely had. It took time, a lot of time. There had been so many issues, everything went wrong. My dad never got approved, the system glitched in the app my dad was using, and it said he was approved even though he wasn't. It's all just one big shithole.

I admit, I had a big schizo attack in some of the DMs about Loypoll. I was stressed over multiple things, and I was just trying to hurt Loypoll, to feel better about myself, as I was extremely upset. I'm not going to try to justify it, that's just it.

You do not need to bring this up? Furry porn is miles worse? As it depicts Animals?
(different color because hard to tell difference between screenshot and my text)

Unrelated but the guy really fucking hates furry porn. We're kinkshaming now, huh?
Nah kidding, that's fine. I kept making fun of his feet fetish too, which allegedly originated from a Fortnite skin. Sure.

I also want to admit that I was in the Retard Bros GC at one point, we were doing an operation where we would talk on the server. We had no plan, it was to just see how long we could last. I didn't mean for you to get close to the account, I'm Sorry.

However, Loypoll tries to justify some stuff that I think is impossible to do, such as harassing Jared, or quote, "completely destroy [his] life." He tries to justify this saying Jared's friend group was harassing Loypoll, for what he did. But resort to Chapter 6, look at how he treats Jared. That is just unacceptable.

Loypoll seemed to not bother to read my doc before making a response, as he assumed I was working on the older one, which was much much worse. I'm not trying to call Loypoll a pedophile, in fact he uses the old thumbnail which I admit was too dramatic. Loypoll was only careless, and I don't think that warrants him being a pedophile. Resort to Chapter 2 for more info.

I once e-dated someone. This person lied to me about their age originally, and roughly in the middle of the relationship, actually revealed it. They said they were 12, while I was 15. Immediately, I got very uncomfortable with it all. But they started being all suicidal and shit, saying they had pills and that they were gonna overdose. Essentially manipulating me into staying out of pity. Thankfully, I ghosted this person effectively soon after, avoiding anything that would make me feel any kind of pity.

this section is directly copied from an older response doc they made, just thought I'd point that out. Actually, now that I think about it, a lot of the other shit, not related to me, is basically copy-pasted word for word from an older response. Talk about being lazy.

Now, about the "Chara folder", The folder isn't exclusive to Chara, it contains characters from other mediums such as Danganronpa, or other video games. All of which are depicting images of characters who do not show any resemblance to children. I do not like the term "aged-up" as it implies messed up shit, but I really just go by the art style. I stay away from anything that tries to make the characters look chibi, small, or "cute". As I find that disgusting. I've been thinking about uploading my entire porn folder, so I can prove it to you, but I'm not about to make myself Pyrocynical, sorry.

Take this as you will, I'm already tired of this, and as of writing (4/6/2023) {american style), I'm currently banned from the Pizza Tower repainted discord, and Loypoll's been unbanned. If you have any questions, DM Seeri#0299 on Discord, I'll be glad to answer.
